

Join Us in Koblenz Germany in August for the European Projects Using IMS Standards Summit

We will be at the University of Koblenz-Landau the 2-5 August for IMS Project Group Meetings and the European Projects Using IMS Standards Summit. Special Events during the week include a Question and Test Interoperability Demonstration and a Digital Learning Services Workshop. (Digital Learning Services includes Learning Tools Interoperability, Common Cartridge and Learning Information Services). We'll wrap up the week with a look at some European Projects using IMS Standards. Take a look at the full agenda at:

Learning Impact 2010

We had a great Learning Impact 2010 in Long Beach, California. There were killer keynotes, poignant panels and thought-provoking tracks. There is a lot of follow up from the event, and we will be working to move forward with work identified during the conference. Look for more information on activities soon.

We also awarded the Learning Impact Awards, recognizing the most impactful use of technology worldwide in support of learning.
